

Change of the Regulations governing the doctoral study program Economics and Management at the Department of Business Administration and Economics at Bielefeld University dated 15 February 2019

The regulations governing the advanced study and research program Economics and Management at the Department of Business Administration and Economics at Bielefeld University dated 27 July 2018 (published in the Official Journal of the Bielefeld University – Public Notices – volume 47 No. 18 p. 197) are changed as follows:

1. Section 4 Paragraph 2 letter c) is changed as follows:

“The “Management“ profile expects above-average knowledge in those branches of business administration corresponding in content and scope to one of those profiles in the Master study course Business Administration and Economics. “

UNOFFICIAL TRANSLATION