Bielefeld University is a young innovative research university with 25.000 students and more than 2.700 employees in Northwest Germany. This modern location for top-level research and education abides by the principle of excellent cross-disciplinary research and teaching.

Bielefeld University's Faculty of Law with 29 full time professors and 4.000 law students offers first-class training in legal theory, doctrine, and practice in order to broaden and deepen legal and interdisciplinary thought. The faculty has produced leaders in law, government and society who play an active role in the legal and political discourse in Europe through numerous publications, lectures and academic conferences or by serving as counselors to the Federal and State Government as well as political parties. In 2018, Bielefeld University's award for outstanding achievements in teaching went to a law professor.

About the Internship:
